#1 Gone from our home, Oh, how we miss her Loving her dearly, her memory we'll keep Not til life ends shall we forget her
Sacred to us the place where she sleeps	(33)
#2 While you, dear Mother, rest and sleep	(40)
Your living memory we'll always keep.	(13)

Midnight stars gleaming on a lonely grave
Where sleeping, but not dreaming, lies the one w	e could not save
In dreams we see her dear sweet face
And kiss her cold, cold brow, and whisper
As we loved her then, we love her memory now. We think of her in silence
No eyes can see us weep
But still within our aching hearts
Her memory we shall keep
She bade none a last farewell
She said goodbye to none
The heavenly gates has opened
A lovely vioce said, Come
And with farewell unspoken
She gently entered home
Our dear mother sleeps in silence
We'd not disturb her rest	Lhar boot (120)
Sad and lonely are the hearts of those who loved	I her best. (120)

There's a face that is haunting us ever,
There's a voice that we're longing to hear,
There's a smile we'll remember forever,
Tho we try to forget every tear.
There's a memory fond and true,
There's a token of affection, dear
And heartache still for you.	(52)

#7 A door swung briefly open
And a loved one slipped away,
Swept from life's dark shadow
Into bright eternal day.
Where earthly grief is over,
Where pain shall be no more,
To peace past understanding
God has opened wide the door.	(41)

Deep down in our hearts there's a picture
Worth more than silver and gold,
Tis a picture of our dear mother,
Whose memory will never grow old.
We miss you now, our hearts are sore,
As time goes by, we miss you more.
Your patient smile, your gentle face,
No one can ever fill your place.	(56)

In our hearts your memory lingers,
Sweetly, tender, fond and true,
There is not a day, dear
That we do not think of you.	(25)

#10

Gone, dear father, gone forever, Away from sorrow, cares and pain, May you rest in peace, dear father Until we meet again.

#11

Just a thought of sweet remembrance, Just a memory fond and true, Just a token of affection And a heartache still for you. More and more each day we miss you, Little do they know the sorrow That is within our hearts concealed.

(43)

#12

Just when your life was brightest, Just when your years were best, You were called from this world of sorrow To home of eternal rest.

(26)

#13

Loving and kind in all of his ways, Upright and just to the end of his days, Sincere and kind in heart and mind What a beautiful memory he left behind.

He bade no one a last farewell
He said goodbye to none,
The heavenly gates had opened
A lovely voice said, "Come"
And with farewell unspoken
He gently entered home.
Our dear one sleeps in silence
We'd not disturb his rest;
Sad and lonely are the hearts
Of those who loved him best.

Our thoughts go wandering when daylight fades To the land of long ago, And memory paints the scenes of old In the gold of the twilight glow We seem to see in the soft, dim light A face we loved the best, And think of her when the sun's last ray Goes down in the far-off West.	(58)

We weep for you, but silently,
Alone, where none can see,
The bitter price of hearts must pay
For heroes and for victory.

Our Father Who Art in Heaven,
We pray thee give him rest,
Our young and tired warrior
Who loved not life, but duty best.

Somewhere beyond the sunset,
Whose glory hides the gate,
Of Heaven from earth-bound mortals,
We know that you await.
Your loved ones' first homecoming
From this world of pain and sin,
With open arms to greet us
And welcome us within.
And welcome as within.
#48
How often we remember
Your precious ways and baby smile;
And are grateful for the Angel
God loaned us for awhile.

The memory that we keep of you,
The shears of Time can't sever;
For it's planted deep within our hearts
Where love will bind it ever.

PAGE 18 ANNIVERSARY

#95

I remember the day I met you,
And the day God made you mine,
I remember the day I lost you
And will till the end of time.
Among my tears and heartaches
There's one thing that makes me glad,
That you chose me to spend
The happy years we had.
I tend your grave with loving care.
Because a part of my heart is buried there.

#96

When I come to the end of the road And the sun has set for me. I want no rites in a gloom filled room, Why cry for a soul set free. Miss me a little – but not too long. With your head bowed low, Remember the love That once was shared: Miss me – but let me go. For this is journey we all must take, And each must go alone. It is all a part of the Master's Plan, A step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick of heart, Go to friends we know And bury your sorrows In doing good deeds; Miss me – but let me go.

(112)

#97

Do not stand at my grave and weep,
I am not there, I do not sleep;
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow;
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am gentle autumn's rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight;

I am the soft star that shines at night.
Do not stand at my grave and cry,
I am not there, I did not die.

Time can never steal away
Remembrance of the past,
Of you the one we loved and lost;
Our hearts will hold it fast.

We seek a pain-mixed pleasure
When we bring your face to mind
And all the happy days we shared
That we've left far behind.

God's Garden God looked around His garden And found an empty place, He then looked down upon the earth And saw your tired face. He put His arms around you And lifted you to rest, God's garden must be beautiful He always takes the best. He saw that you were suffering, He knew that you were in pain, He knew that you would never Get well on earth again. He saw the road was getting rough And the hills were hard to climb So He closed your weary eyelids And whispered, "Peace Be Thine." It broke our hearts to lose you But you didn't go alone, For part of us went with you The day God called you home.

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free, I'm following the path God laid for me. I took His hand when I heard Him call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day, To laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way, I found that peace at close of day. If my parting has left a void, Then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Ah yes, these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much, Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all to brief, Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and share with me, God wanted me now – He has set me free.

In the rising of the sun, and in its going down...

We remember them in the blowing of the wind, and the chill of winter...

We remember them in the opening of the buds, and the rebirth of spring...

We remember them in the blueness of the sky, and the warmth of summer...

We remember them in the rustling of leaves, and the beauty of autumn...

We remember them in the beginning of the year and when it ends...

We remember them when we are weary, and in need of strength.

When we have joys we yearn to share.

So long as we live, they too shall live,

For they remain a part of us,

As we remember them.

LITTLE ANGELS

When God calls little children to dwell with Him above,

We mortals sometimes question the wisdom of His love.

For no heartache compares with the death of one small child

Who does so much to make our world seem wonderful and mild.

Perhaps God tires of calling the aged to His fold.

So He picks a rosebud before it can grow old.

God knows how much we need them, and so He takes but few,

To make the hand of Heaven more beautiful to view.

Believing this is difficult still somehow we must try,

The saddest word mankind knows will always be "Goodbye."

So when a little child departs, we who are left behind

Must realize God loves children.

Angels are hard to find.

The lives she touched have flourished The seeds she planted grew The beauty of her spirit lingers on. We each have special memories Of the woman that we knew. Her love is with us, Even though she's gone.

His Journey's Just Begun

Don't think of him as gone away--His journey's just begun, Life holds so many facets--This earth is only one. Just think of him as resting From the sorrows and the tears In a place of warmth and comfort Where there are no days and years. Think how he must be wishing That we could know today How nothing but our sadness Can really pass away. And think of him as living In the hearts of those he touched... For nothing loved is ever lost--And he was loved so much. E. Brenneman

There's a miracle called friendship
That dwells within the heart,
You don't know how it happens
Or how it gets its start.
But the happiness it brings you
Always gives a special lift,
And you realize that friendship
Is God's most precious gift.

AFTERGLOW

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.

I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly

down the ways.

Of happy times and laughing times and bright

and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve,

to dry before the sun.

Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

When you're walking down the street

And you've got me on your mind,

I'm walking in your footsteps,

Only half a step behind.

And when it's time for you to go,

from the body to be free,

Remember you are going, you are coming here to me.

LOVING MEMORIES

Your gentle face and patient smile

With sadness we recall.

You had a kindly word for each and died beloved by all.

The voice is mute and stilled the heart.

That loved us well and true,

Ah, bitter was the trial to part

From one so good as you.

You are not forgotten loved one,

Nor will you ever be.

As long as life and memory last,

We will remember thee.

We miss you now, our hearts are sore,

As time goes by we miss you more,

Your loving smile, your gentle face,

No one can fill your vacant place.

If tears could build a stairway and memories were a lane,

I would walk right up to heaven to bring you home again.

No farewell words were spoken,

No time to say goodbye.

You were gone before I knew it,

And only God knows why.

My heart still aches in sadness and secret tears still flow,
What it meant to lose you, no one will ever know.

If tears could build a stairway,
And memories were a lane,
I would walk right up to heaven
To bring you home again.
No farewell words were spoken,
No time to say goodbye.
You were gone before I knew it,
And only God knows why.
My heart still aches in sadness,
And secret tears still flow,
What it meant to lose you,
No one will ever know.

If tears could build a stairway, And memories were a lane, I would walk right up to heaven To bring you home again. No farewell words were spoken, No time to say goodbye. You were gone before I knew it, And only God knows why. My heart still aches in sadness, And secret tears still flow, What it meant to lose you, No one will ever know. But now we know you want us, To mourn for you no more, To remember all the happy times Life still has much in store. Since you'll never be forgotten, We pledge to you today, A hallowed place within our hearts, Is where you'll always stay. No time to say goodbye. You were gone before I knew it, And only God knows why. My heart still aches in sadness and secret tears still flow, What it meant to lose you, no one will ever know.

BEYOND THE SUNSET

Should you go first and I remain, to walk the road alone I'll live in memories garden, dear and happy days we've known. In spring I'll wait for roses red, when faded, the lilacs blue. In early fall when brown leaves fall, I'll catch a glimpse of you. Should you go first and I remain, for battles to be fought. Each thing you've touched among the way, will be a hallowed spot. I'll hear your voice, I'll see your smile, tho blindly I may grope, The memory of your helping hand will buoy me on with hope. Should you go first and I remain, One thing I'll have to do, Walk slowly down that long long path, for soon I'll follow you. I want to know each step you take, So I may do the same. For someday down that lonely road, You'll hear me call your name.

Thus shall I walk with you
And keep the bond that love doth give,
Knowing that remembrance, though
unspoken,
Shall reach you wherever you live.

You were a wife in a million,
Why did you have to go,
You meant the world to me,
I really loved you so,
If I had one choice today
My choice would not be hard,
I'd wish that I could have you here,
To give you a birthday card.

We miss you more than words can say.
In our hearts you will always stay
Loved and remembered every day.

A beautiful memory dearer than gold.
Of a mother/father/brother/sister, etc.,
Whose worth can never be told,
There's a place in my heart no one can fill,
I miss you, mum/dad, and always will.

In the quiet of the evening
I sit and think of you,
I open up my memory book,
Of the things we used to do,
And as I turn the pages,
My eyes are filled with tears,
For, although I have my memories,
I can't hold back the years.

(49)

May the Lord watch between me and thee, when we are absent from one another.

Partings come to let us know,

We love more deeply than we show,

But love in death should let us see,

What love in life should really be.

#318

You always waited for me,
Anxious, if I were late,
In winter at the window,
In summer by the gate,
Your thoughts were always for me,
Not once did you forget,
And so I know from Heaven above,
You'll be waiting for me yet.

Although we laugh and seem carefree,
And make no outward show,
What it meant to lose you
No one will ever know.

Peacefully sleeping, resting at last,
The world's weary trouble and trials are past,
In silence she suffered, in patience she bore,
Till God called her home to suffer no more.

(30)

Yes, sadly we miss her, and try not to grieve;
A little while longer we too must leave,
To meet her on that beautiful shore
Where parting's unknown and life's evermore.

Only those who have lost can tell
Of the grief that we bear in silence
For the one we loved so well.

Time may help us to ease the bitter pain
Of the loss of one held dear;
But only few know how we miss her,
And the loneliness of this year.
I try to be brave and remember (56)
She now is free from all pain;
And at the road's end, God willing,
We too shall meet again.
